SPEAKERS • SUNDAY, MAY 5, 2019

M. Eve Hurwitz

Eve is a mother of five, combat veteran, owner of a successful accounting business, and community organizer. She is motivated by a need to serve and fight for the rights of others every day. Eve lives and breathes to maximize our best human potential by instilling love, empathy, and inclusion in everything she does. Eve is a board member for The Milky Way Foundation, March On, and March On Maryland, all nonprofits that focus on empowering people, from maternal and infant health to civic engagement and first amendment rights. One of the main priorities in Eve's life is shifting the focus from money and status to health, happiness and stability starting at birth.

Jennifer L. Porter

Jennifer L. Porter was appointed to serve as Executive Director of the Mayor's Office on Women's Policy and Initiatives (MOWPI) by Mayor Muriel Bowser in February of 2019. In this role, she serves as the Bowser Administration's chief advocate for women and women's issues in Washington, DC. As Director, Jennifer collaborates with local and national nonprofit organizations and public agencies to address the needs of women. Mrs. Porter advises Mayor Bowser on women's policy and areas of need for women initiatives.

Mrs. Porter has held a number of volunteer leadership positions in local, regional and national community service organizations. Jennifer's excellence in service and professionalism has been commended being named an Academy Health 2017 National Population Health Scholar. Jennifer was recently named among the National Minority Quality Forum's 2018

National 40 under 40 Leader's in Minority Health. Jennifer is proud to live in Ward 5 of Washington, DC with her husband André.
